SING OF THE SAL-TIRE, AN-DREW'S FLAG A-CCLAIMED, PRAI-SING THE HE-RI-TAGE BY WHICH WE'RE NAMED,

SING OF THE FAITH TRANS-MITT-ED AND PRO-CLAIMED, SING, ALL A-SSEM-BLED HERE WITH HEARTS A-FLAME,

REFRAIN

LOUD IS OUR PRAISE, WE SING STRONG AND TRUE, ALL TO-GETH-ER WE STAND, AN-DREW'S OUR BAND,

MEN AND WO-MEN, BLUE AND WHITE, O LORD, LEAD US WE PRAY IN-TO THE LIGHT.

Hymn for St Andrew's

- sung to Highland Cathedral.

Sing of the Saltire, Andrew's flag acclaimed
Praising the heritage by which we're named
Sing of the faith transmitted and proclaimed
Sing all assembled here with hearts aflame.

Here in this College aspirations soar
Here love of learning meets with spirit's roar
Shaping our duty, steadfast, strong and sure
Guided by God's grace now and ever more.

Loud is our praise, we sing strong and true
All together we stand, Andrew's our band.
Men and women, blue and white
O Lord, lead us we pray into the light.

And as we go from here to face life's thrill
Part of a history that holds us still
Sure of a future that will hold no ill
We sing for Andrew's and we ever will.

Loud is our praise, we sing strong and true
All together we stand, Andrew's our band.
Men and women, blue and white
O Lord, lead us we pray into the light.

And as we go from here to face life's thrill
Part of a history that holds us still
Sure of a future that will hold no ill
We sing for Andrew's and we ever will.

- words by Whitney Erickson, adapted from Sing of Proud Banners, by John Dalles.
